The Butcher Block Table is a large, luxurious chopping block. For those in search of the missing showpiece in your home kitchen or simply looking for additional prep space that can take a hammering. Available in maple, oak, or walnut this contemporary Butcher Block Table will elevate your kitchen experience. The colossal and hardy end grain top will handle generations of use and provide a hard surface that won't dull knives. The rounded shape shows off clean, contemporary lines and also allows for easy mobility around the table. Brass highlights on the custom shaped legs which rise directly from the floor becoming a part of the actual cutting surface. This design maintains a permanently sturdy and safe cutting surface. A minimal circular shelf is sized to key in perfectly with the De JONG & Co. Fruit Bowl giving you more immediate storage to keep your table top clean and ready for the next cooking project. Pictured in oxidized maple, brass hardware, optional De JONG & Co. Fruit Bowl, and our specially formulated, fully seasoned and food safe, hand-rubbed oil & wax finish.
